485 Days at Majdanek is a harrowing and unforgettable account of survival in one of the most notorious Nazi concentration camps. Jerzy Kwiatkowski was just 17 years old when he was arrested by the Gestapo and sent to Majdanek. For the next 485 days, he endured unimaginable horrors, including starvation, torture, and the constant threat of death.

Kwiatkowski's story is a testament to the human spirit's ability to survive even the most extreme circumstances. Despite the unimaginable hardships he faced, Kwiatkowski never gave up hope. He found strength in his faith, his family, and his fellow prisoners. And he never forgot the lessons he learned at Majdanek about the dangers of hatred and intolerance.

485 Days at Majdanek is a powerful and moving story that will stay with you long after you finish reading it. It is a must-read for anyone interested in the Holocaust and its victims.
